Account Creation

If you are filling out an application on behalf of your children, please use a different email address for each child. USU Requires a separate email address for each university student in order to communicate with them individually. If you reuse an email address, USU will not accept the application and you will have to resubmit.

The email address you provide will be used to communicate all important information, including admissions, scholarships, deadlines, events and more. Please verify it is correct and an email you often check. We recommend you do not use your school issued email address.
