

Utah Conservation Corps AmeriCorps Individual Placement Aggie Blue Bikes Bicycle Mechanic

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Founded in 2005, Aggie Blue Bikes (ABB) is a community oriented on-campus bicycle rental and repair shop. Aggie Blue Bikes receives its funding from student tuition, and receives approximately $1.11 per student, per semester. ABB employs trained mechanics who can teach customers how to repair their bicycles. Mechanics are trained to be non-elitist and welcoming for all skill levels. The shop has a rental fleet of 250 bicycles that are available for free to students. The shop also sells basic necessities to keep your bike running and can teach you how to install and adjust them with our stocked tool boards. ABB also has a variety of events both on and off bicycles that are aimed towards fun and sustainability for all. We also take donated bicycles and repair them to donate back to community organizations such as CRIC and Athletics United.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Shop Staff, or Mechanics, are AmeriCorps Individual Placements, and are the face of Aggie Blue Bikes. Mechanics are expected to interact with customers in a friendly and informative way throughout their shift. Diversity Statement

Utah Conservation Corps is an equal opportunity program. Qualified applicants will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, age, protected veteran, or disabled status. UCC is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for application and service with our programs.

About the Utah Conservation Corps

The Utah Conservation Corps (UCC) is an AmeriCorps program dedicated to developing the conservation leaders of tomorrow. We're a non-residential AmeriCorps program composed of AmeriCorps members, staff, and partners dedicated to service to our community, the environment, and regions requiring disaster response efforts.

Additionally, as an organization, we seek to provide a more welcoming environment for people of all backgrounds and experience levels to ensure a healthy, vibrant, innovative, and sustainable corps. The UCC is committed to an inclusive culture of community and service and to recognizing and addressing our shortcomings. Our vision is to create sustainable communities and conserve the natural heritage of Utah and the Intermountain West.

UCC's Zero Tolerance Policies

The following behaviors will result in immediate termination. At no time may the UCC AmeriCorps member:

- Engage in activities that pose a significant safety risk to others or physically or emotionally damage members of the program or community, such as harassment, hostile work environment, or bullying;
- Possess, consume, or be under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol during the performance of service activities or while living and working at the UCC project site, campsite, or in UCC vehicles (which includes showing up to work hungover); and
- Fail to notify the UCC of a criminal arrest or conviction during their term of service.

Land Acknowledgement Statement

As part of Utah State University, a land grant institution, UCC acknowledges Utah State University campuses and centers reside and operate on the territories of the eight tribes of Utah, who have been living, working, and residing on this land from time immemorial. These tribes are the Confederated Tribes of the Goshute Indians, Navajo Nation, Ute Indian Tribe, Northwestern Band of Shoshone, Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah, San Juan Southern Paiute, Skull Valley Band of Goshute, and White Mesa Band of the Ute Mountain Ute. Along with USU, we acknowledge these lands carry the stories of these Nations and their struggles for survival and identity. We recognize Elders past and present as people who have cared for, and continue to care for, the land. In offering this land acknowledgment, we affirm Indigenous self-governance history, experiences, and resiliency of the Native people who are still here today.
