AmeriCorps Uintah County 675-Hour Working Lands Climate Corps Individual Placement Utah Conservation Corps

About the Utah Conservation Corps

The Utah Conservation Corps (UCC) is an AmeriCorps program dedicated to developing the conservation leaders of tomorrow. We're a non-residential AmeriCorps program composed of AmeriCorps members, staff, and partners dedicated to service to our community, the environment, and regions requiring disaster response efforts. Additionally, as an organization, we seek to provide a more welcoming environment for people of all backgrounds and experience levels to ensure a healthy, vibrant, innovative, and sustainable corps. The UCC is committed to an inclusive culture of community and service and to recognizing and addressing our shortcomings. Our vision is to create sustainable communities and conserve the natural heritage of Utah and the Intermountain West.

The Utah Climate Corps is a program of the Utah Conservation Corps focusing on fire fuels reduction, food security, and working lands through partnerships with local NRCS offices and conservation districts. This program will support the NRCS mission, climate goals, and programs through activities at USU Extension Offices in Box Elder, Cache, Daggett, Piute, San Juan, Sevier, Uintah, and Wayne Counties.

Position Overview

The Utah Conservation Corps (UCC) serves Utah through individual placements with partner organizations. As part of this mission, we aim to expand the capacity of USU's current Extension programs that are aligned with Climate-Smart Agriculture and Forestry conservation practice standards.

The Uintah County individual placement member will assist Uintah County Extension staff to deliver climate-smart information relevant to residents in Uintah and Daggett Counties and to help maintain community gardens.

The work schedule varies somewhat depending on when classes/workshops/activities are held (occasional weeknights and weekends).

The AmeriCorps Uintah County Working Lands Climate Corps (WLCC) Individual Placement is a 675-hour AmeriCorps member who will serve approximately between 10/1/2024 and 9/30/2025. This position will report to Cheyenne Reid, Uintah County Extension Director.

Responsibilities

One 675- hour WLCC AmeriCorps member will serve with the Uintah County USU Extension Director. The member will be responsible for:

- Planning and executing natural resources themed camps
- Designing and implementing a newsletter on agricultural and natural resources topics in Uintah and Daggett Counties
- Maintaining community-based gardens supported by USU Extension
- Executing field days with existing research in Uintah County
- Updating noxious weeds booklet of Daggett County
- Creating noxious weed booklet for Uintah County

Qualifications

- Experience and/or interest in learning about natural resources, community gardens or plant and rangeland science
- Ability to work outdoors
- An interest in promoting climate-smart agriculture and forestry
- Communication skills in working with the public and co-workers
- Work well in a team approach to accomplishing goals
- Willingness to learn
- Basic computer skills

Training/Professional Development you will receive:

- Education outreach program planning

The AmeriCorps program requires that members:

- Be a United States citizen, U.S. national, or a lawful permanent resident alien of the United States
- Be at least 18 years of age
- Have a high school diploma or GED or work towards obtaining one while in the program
- Must undergo and pass a criminal history check
- Are eligible to serve an AmeriCorps term of service

Compensation and Hours Required:

This position requires the fulfillment of 675 hours of service over a 12-month period.

Full day schedules will include a 30-minute lunch break which does not count toward term of service hours.

This AmeriCorps member will receive the following benefits:

- $11,912 total living allowance paid in even bimonthly (TWICE per month) disbursements throughout the term of service).

- $2,626.27 Segal AmeriCorps Education Award (available to members after successful service term)
- Note: this is taxable income.

Please note that AmeriCorps rules limit members to a maximum of four AmeriCorps terms in a program such as UCC. AmeriCorps also limits the number of education awards an individual may earn. This rule states that "although an individual can serve more than two terms, a person cannot earn more than the aggregate value of two, full-time education awards." It is a requirement to obtain a high school diploma or GED before one is eligible to use the Education Award.
